Threading the 2007 Wisconsin Film Fest: Saturday Projections

Submitted by Jesse Russell on Sun, 2007-04-15 14:05. Arts | WisFilmFest2007

Lunch and then back on the film circuit. But first, here is a round up of reviews from around the Internet concerning Saturday's films. As with the Thursday and Friday projections this will be updated as more reviews pop up and then on Monday we will have the finale listing from all four days. For those of you following our threads and who read my complaints about embargoes yesterday, Kristian Knutsen gives some insight on The Daily Page as to why studios choose to set embargoes and how the film festival thinks the media should approach such embargoes.
